

Privacy & Cookie Policy

TASTE OF THAI values the privacy and security of the information you share with us. This Privacy Statement applies to information collected through TASTE OF THAI (the “website”). This Statement describes how TASTE OF THAI collects, uses, shares, protects, or otherwise processes your personal information.

By using this website, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Statement.

Collection and Use of Information

TASTE OF THAI collects personal information to set up and manage accounts for our social commerce services. You may need to provide TASTE OF THAI with personal information such as:

- name,
- email address.

TASTE OF THAI uses such information for:

- website registration;
- enabling sales and other transactions;
- processing payments and settlement;
- measuring, improving, and customising our services; and
- fulfilling other technical, logistical, financial, tax, legal, compliance, administrative, or back office functions.
- TASTE OF THAI does not hold or store credit/debit card details.

Third-party websites.

Our website and our mobile applications contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of third-party sites. Please read the privacy policy of any website you visit.

Cookies and logs

TASTE OF THAI collects information related to your use of our website using cookies and log information.

Cookies are small files containing strings of text stored on your computer. TASTE OF THAI uses cookies to authenticate you as a user when you log in, track your session, deliver content specific to your preferences and interests, and provide other functions.

Log information may include web requests, Internet Protocol address, operating system, browser type, browser language, date and time of your request, and cookies that may uniquely identify your browser. TASTE OF THAI uses this information to enhance the functionality of the website and to make your access more convenient, secure, and efficient.

TASTE OF THAI also uses information gathered from logs and cookies to monitor website performance; improve website design, functionality, and security; and assemble web analytics and activity trends. TASTE OF THAI retains such information for as long as reasonably required for business purposes or as reasonably required to comply with our legal obligations.

Google Analytics

TASTE OF THAI uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service. Google Analytics uses cookies and other means to help TASTE OF THAI analyse how users use the site. See Google's Privacy Policy.

TASTE OF THAI may disclose personal information where:

- required by law or by an order or requirement of a court, administrative agency, or other government entity, or by court rules concerning the production of records;

- TASTE OF THAI has reasonable grounds to believe that use or disclosure is necessary to protect the rights, privacy, property, or safety of our users or other people;

- TASTE OF THAI has reasonable grounds to believe that the information relates to the breach of an agreement or violation of the law that has been, is being, or is about to be committed;

- it is necessary for fraud protection, risk reduction, or the establishment or collection of funds owed to us;

- it is necessary to enforce or apply our legal agreements, to pursue remedies, or to limit damages to TASTE OF THAI;

- the information is public;

- you have provided consent or with your direction; or

- other reasons allow it or other laws require it.

When we are required or permitted to disclose information, we will not disclose more information than is necessary to fulfil the disclosure purpose.

TASTE OF THAI may disclose aggregate or statistical information to our business partners, for public relations purposes, or other purposes.

'Do Not Track' notifications.

Some browsers allow you to automatically notify websites you visit not to track you using a "Do Not Track" signal. There is no consensus among industry participants as to what "Do Not Track" means in this context. Like many websites and online services, we currently do not alter our practices when we receive a "Do Not Track" signal from a visitor's browser. To find out more about "Do Not Track," you may wish to visit www.ico.org.uk

How you can access, update or delete your data.

If you make a request to delete your personal data and that data is necessary for the products or services you have purchased, the request will be honoured only to the extent it is no longer necessary for any Services purchased or required for our legitimate business purposes or legal or contractual record keeping requirements.

If you would prefer not to receive further messages from us, then please tell us at hello@tasteofthaiseaton.co.uk

Data Protection Authority.

If you are a resident of the European Economic Area (EEA) and believe we maintain your personal data subject to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), you may direct questions or complaints to our lead supervisory authority, the UK's Information Commissioner's Office, as noted below:

Security

TASTE OF THAI combines technical and physical safeguards with employee policies and procedures to protect your information. We work to protect your personal information during transmission by using Secure Sockets Layer software, which encrypts the information that you provide online at our website. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to protect your information. We will also continue to assess new technology for protecting information and upgrade our information security systems when appropriate.

Further, we permit only authorised TASTE OF THAI employees to access any personal information. If an employee misuses personal information, we may take disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. If any third party individual or organisation misuses personal information, we will take action, up to and including termination of any agreement between TASTE OF THAI and that individual or organisation.

Data Integrity

TASTE OF THAI processes personal information only for the purposes it was originally collected and in accordance with this Privacy Statement. TASTE OF THAI takes commercially reasonable steps to ensure that the personal data is relevant, reliable for its intended use, accurate, complete, and current for the purposes for which it is used. TASTE OF THAI retains information for as long as reasonably required for business purposes or as reasonably required to comply with our legal obligations.

TASTE OF THAI may send you relevant marketing communications considered to be of interest based on your profile. We aim to bring you the best offers available. If you would prefer not to receive further messages from us or our carefully selected partners then please tell us at hello@tasteofthaiseaton.co.uk
